

Resolution in Support of Passing Initiative 735 and Post-Election Follow-up

WHEREAS the US Supreme Court in its Citizens United v. FEC and Buckley v. Valeo decisions construed the spending of money by individuals, corporations and special interests in elections as protected free speech under the First Amendment of the Constitution of the United States, and

WHEREAS previous US Supreme Court decisions have eroded the authority of government to regulate campaign contributions and expenditures, and

WHEREAS the prompt disclosure of all political contributions and expenditures in a manner accessible to voters prior to elections is in the best interest of holding free and fair elections; and

WHEREAS Initiative 735 seeks to make Washington the 17th state calling for a US constitutional amendment to overturn US Supreme Court decisions that threaten to destroy our democracy, and

WHEREAS Initiative 735 upholds the following provisions of a democracy of, by and for the people

1. The rights listed and acknowledged in the Constitution of the United States are the rights of individual human beings only.
2. The judiciary shall not construe the spending of money to be free speech under The First Amendment of the Constitution of the United States
3. Federal, state, and local governments shall be fully empowered to regulate political contributions and expenditures to ensure that no person or artificial legal entity gains undue influence over government and the political process.
4. All political contributions and expenditures shall be disclosed promptly and in a manner accessible to voters prior to elections.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the County and State Republican Party urge its elected officials to endorse I-735 and to pass endorsement resolutions in their jurisdictions and encourage all voters to vote for I-735 , and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Republican Party at all levels commits to holding Washington State members of Congress accountable to abide by the wishes of Washington State voters following the November 2016 election.
